

17th ISQOLS Annual Conference | Happiness in a Multicultural World

Title of the session	Methods in quality of life (IV)
Date, time, location	7 September 15:45-17:15, Room 11
Chair	Dries Verlet
Presenters	Title
Gang-Hua Fan	How to Translate "Happiness" in Chinese? An Empirical Comparison of "Xing Fu" and "Kuai Le."
Curt Hagquist	Applications of composite health measures – A comparison between different approaches
Barbara Baldazzi	The evolution of composite indices of well-being: An application to the official report of the Italian National Institute of Statistics
Alessandra Tinto	How the concept of wellbeing changes and how to measure it: the case of Italy
Dries Verlet	The measurement of perceived quality of life (QOL) using a diversity of scales: do they measure the same?

Title of the session	Psychological aspects of Well-Being (II)
Date, time, location	7 September 15:45-17:15, Room 22
Chair	Olga Strizhitskaya
Presenters	Title
Pamela Jackson	Evidence-based interventions to enhance personal well-being: A review
Piotr Michon	Bored Mothers
Hearan Koo	Happy country and unhappy country, what's in their peoples' mind? A cross-country comparison on the configuration of mental state
Olga Strizhitskaya	Time perspective and future time ambiguity as predictors of psychological well-being of students

Title of the session	Quality of life among the elderly (III)
Date, time, location	7 September 15:45-17:15, Room 21
Chair	Arthur Drexler
Presenters	Title
Gloria Fernandez-Mayoralas	Active Ageing, Security and Quality of Life: a Qualitative Approach
Jiehua Lu	A Study on the Changing Trends of Healthy Index among the Chinese Elderly: 1998-2014
Arthur Drexler	Lifestyle analysis for a better quality of life for elderly people with dementia